

Draft Draft Draft

Cricket Canada Examinations Notice

Last weekend in April, 2012

And

The Fall of 2012

The exact days and locations will be announced

Requirements:

Register by e-mail or telephone before the date above stating the level of examination that you wish to sit. See below for the only method of registration. Persons who fail to register may not be allowed to sit the examination.

Candidates for the Intermediate Umpire, Qualified Umpire, and Qualified Scorer certificates must bring their own calculators for Last Hour calculations and also bring D/L sheets and resource tables.

Candidates may only attempt more than one Cricket Canada umpiring examination and more than one Cricket Canada scoring examination in any calendar year (Jan. 1 to Dec. 31) if they are successful in the first examination.

Provisional Umpire examination (Level 1). Start time 9:00 a.m.

Candidates must demonstrate a reasonably good knowledge of the current MCC Laws (Part A) and the Basic ICC Standard Playing Conditions (Part B), for limited overs matches. Candidates must study the required text, "Tom Smith's New Cricket Umpiring and Scoring," current version ISBN 978-0-297-86641-1 and the ICC rules (available on the internet http://icc-cricket.yahoo.net/rules_and_regulations.php.) This qualification normally expires after five seasons. The examination lasts for one hour. Minimum age 12 years.* Pass mark 70%. Fee: $10.

Intermediate Umpire examination (Level 2). Start time 10:00 a.m.

Candidates must demonstrate a very good knowledge of the MCC Laws (Part A) and the ICC Standard Playing Conditions for limited overs matches including the manual Duckworth/Lewis method (Part B). Candidates are unlikely pass this examination without studying "Tom Smith's" and the ICC rules (see above). Candidates must pass both Part A and Part B The examination lasts for two-and-a-half hours. Pass mark 75%. Fee: $12.

Qualified Umpire (Level 3). Start time 10:00 a.m.

Candidates must demonstrate an excellent knowledge of the MCC Laws (Part A) and the ICC Standard Playing Conditions for limited overs matches including the Duckworth/Lewis method (Part B).The examination lasts for three hours. Some answers to the questions require detailed explanations. Candidates must pass both Parts A and B. Cricket Canada Qualified Umpires are capable of standing in any cricket match up to the national level. Pass mark 80%. Fee: $12. This qualification requires two successful on-field assessments by two umpires appointed by Cricket Canada.

Provisional Scorer examination. Start time 9:00 a.m.

Minimum age 12 years.* Candidates must demonstrate a reasonably good knowledge of the current MCC Laws and the ICC Standard Playing Conditions for limited overs matches as they concern scorers. This includes methods of dismissal, credit for the dismissal, umpire signals, scoring symbols, and statement of result. Candidates should study, "Tom Smith's New Cricket Umpiring and Scoring," current version ISBN 978-0-297-86641-1, and the ICC rules (available on the internet http://icc-cricket.yahoo.net/rules_and_regulations.php.) This qualification normally expires after five seasons. Pass mark 70%. Fee: $10.

Qualified Scorer examination. Start time 10:00 a.m.

Candidates must demonstrate an excellent knowledge of the MCC Laws and Test match playing conditions (Part A) and the ICC Standard Playing Conditions for limited overs matches, including the manual Duckworth/Lewis method and bonus point calculation (Part B), as they concern scorers. A score sheet is provided for Part C. The examination lasts for three hours. Candidates are expected to pass Parts A, B and C. This qualification normally expires after five seasons. Pass mark 80%. Fee: $12.

*Assignments are subject to the local league's playing conditions

Kantilal (Ken) Patel
Umpire Coordinator and Chairman Umpire Certification

Contact:
Gwynne Giles
(416) 494-0455
gwynnegiles@yahoo.ca
Copy: patel_kantilal@hotmail.com